Dear Mr. Pickard,

Alex Hamilton has asked me to send you the six short-listed authors' photographs for the 1971 Booker Prize for fiction, as I believe he is writing an article for you at the time of the announcement of the winner.

They are: Thomas Kilroy - "The Big Chapel" - Faber
Doris Lessing - "Briefing for a Descent into Hell" - Cape
V.S. Naipaul - "In a Free State" - André Deutsch
Mordecai Richler - "St. Urbain's Horseman" - Weidenfeld & Nicolson
Derek Robinson - "Goshawk Squadron" - Heinemann
Elizabeth Taylor - "Mrs. Palfrey at the Claremont" - Chatto & Windus

If there is any further help or information I can give you, I will obviously be very happy to do so.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
